5. Name of the Activity : Hands on Training Program on " Bioinformatic demonstration on Interactive Day"

Date: 2nd – 4th March 2019

Description: A three-day Hands-on Training Programme on "Bioinformatic Tools" was conducted successfully, focusing on the syllabus of the BSc 6th semester. Dr. R K Das, Head of the Department of Botany, inaugurated the program. The training sessions were led by BenQ Suppliek, who served as the resource person. Participants engaged in practical sessions to explore various bioinformatic tools, enhancing their understanding and proficiency in the subject matter. The programme aimed to equip students with practical skills relevant to their academic curriculum and future careers in the field of biology. Overall, the event received positive feedback from participants and served as a valuable learning experience in the application of bioinformatics in biological research.
